

Themes

Your idea can focus on a specific theme or question you want to solve. We've shared a list of example questions to help spark ideas. These are just a starting point – you can choose one, combine a few, or create your own based on an issue that matters to you.

Category	Example Questions
Social	How could safe and affordable housing options be increased for people in Northland?
Social	How might access to healthy and affordable food be improved in Northland communities?
Social	How could healthcare become easier to access for people in rural Northland?
Social	How might older people in remote communities feel more connected and supported?
Social	How could communities better prepare for and respond to floods and storms?
Social	How might access to addiction support services be improved in Northland?
Economic	How could more job and study opportunities be created to support young people to stay in the district?
Economic	How might transport be improved to be safer and more accessible for people without a car, including students?
Economic	How could Northland support more year-round jobs, not just seasonal work?
Economic	How might internet access and reliability be improved in remote areas?
Youth	How could more young people stay engaged in school, training, or career pathways?
Youth	How might access to safe spaces and activities for young people be improved?
Youth	How could young people have more input into local decision making?
Youth	How could access to hands-on tech or STEM (science, technology, engineering, and maths) opportunities be expanded?